Larson Rape Trial at Logan Results in Conviction.

LARSEN WAS UNCONCERNED

ATTORNEY JENNINGS ON THE RACK AT RICHFIELD.

Again Confronted by That Logan Record, But Says It Is a Case of Mistaken Identity—Programme for Bryan at Park City—Big Irrigation Project for Cache Valley—To Reclaim 30,000 Acres.

Logan, Utah, July 18.—After the overruling of the motion for a change of venue in the Charles A. Larson rape case in the district court yesterday, the trial began. The jury, when completed, was as follows: John Walker, Meadon, C. J. Larson, Logan; Murray House, Millville; William Murray, Wellsville; William Waddams, Lewiston; William Palphar, Arden; William O'Brien, Provo; Bradbury, Cotton. The little girl victim, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Davila of Greenville, gave her evidence, stating the facts as heard, published, and reported. Her mother, Mrs. Davila, also testified, and unimportant corroborating evidence was gleaned from neighbors. Dr. C. J. Larson, who was the physician who examined the girl, testified that he was satisfied that the crime had been committed.

The jury retired at 10:30 last night, and shortly after 11 returned with a verdict of guilty as charged. Sentence will be pronounced Wednesday next, at 11 o'clock.

The defendant appeared to be, throughout the proceedings, the most untroubled man in the courtroom.

Mr. William H. Hanks of Benson, Dr. Hancy of Hyde Park and Mr. Alma Jensen of Clarkston, were among the visitors to Logan yesterday.

IN FREE PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Fleming gave a very pleasant progressive supper party at their residence last evening, in honor of Miss Chamberlain, who is here on a visit from the east. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Lyon, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Foster, Professors McKean and Shepard, Messrs. Lyon, Thompson, Walters and Mrs. H. H. Hanks. Satisfactory refreshments were served by the hostess.

There will be large crowds expected for the capital city, beginning tomorrow, and there is talk of forming a large party of Logan's society folk to visit Salt Lake Saturday afternoon.

ATTORNEY ON THE RACK.

Mr. Jennings Confronted by the Logan Record.

Richfield, July 18.—Ever since trouble began between Charles A. Snyder and J. B. Hoffman, formerly in partnership under the firm name of Jennings & Snyder, everybody had expected a "tracy" case. It was expected, too, that Judge McCarty would not try the case but be a witness for the plaintiff, Snyder, who was expected to both sides, and so tried it. The plaintiff, Mr. Snyder, was on the stand for considerable time yesterday morning, being cross-examined by Mr. Hoffman and his associate attorney, E. E. Hoffman. Will K. Reed had been engaged for the plaintiff, but finding the case not as expected, he expected to go back home.

Just after noon Mr. Jennings, the defendant, was called to the stand and questioned by Mr. Hoffman. He testified in relation to the terms of the partnership and claimed that many of the fees collected upon the firm's books were his own.

When Attorney Collins began to cross-examine Mr. Hoffman, he was somewhat indignant. Mr. Collins had a certified copy of the court records from Logan that showed that "J. B. Jennings" had been indicted for forgery in 1915, and that he had been found guilty and sentenced to the state prison for a term of one year.

"I don't want to go to the state prison," Mr. Hoffman said, "but I want to go to the state prison for a term of one year." Mr. Hoffman then testified that he had been indicted for forgery in 1915, and that he had been found guilty and sentenced to the state prison for a term of one year.

Mr. Hoffman then testified that he had been indicted for forgery in 1915, and that he had been found guilty and sentenced to the state prison for a term of one year. DIG IRRIGATION PROJECT.

To Cover Thirty Thousand Acres of Cache Valley Land.

Logan National Professor Fort, irrigation engineer of the experiment station of Utah, assisted by the civil engineering students of the Agricultural College, recently completed the preliminary survey of a canal to divert water from Bear river near the "barrows" above Riverdale, Ida., for the purpose of watering the fertile valley lands of the town of Weston through Cannon, Trenton and as far south as Benson ward. The route of the proposed canal will cover 50,000 acres of some of the best lands in the valley, but only the canal will be limited at first to provide water for 30,000 acres, and in subsequent years it can be enlarged to cover the whole of the land north of Cache Junction.

This enterprise, if carried to a successful completion, would rank first of its kind in this country, and should provide homes for at least 5,000 people. At present the Lewiston canal, carrying water from the old Cache valley, during the summer season nearly 20,000 acres, is by far the largest.

This projected canal, however, will divert water from the Cache valley, and will cover sufficient water to irrigate 30,000 acres.

At a meeting held at Cannon, Prof. Fort presented an outline of the survey and discussed with the irrigators present the best means of financing the project, and the best way to build the canal.

WESTERN NEWS AND PROGRESS.

IDAHO.

According to the figures of Postoffice Inspector Wayland the Idaho postoffice shows a good increase in business for the year ending March 31.

Postoffice valley farmers have lately been victimized by lightning rod swindlers. They paid $70 each for insurance against fire by lightning, under the belief that they were receiving a straight fire insurance policy for a period of ten years.

One-half county has sold $10,000 of 6 per cent bonds to the First National Bank of Caldwell at par.

The school population of Pocatello now exceeds last year's by an increase of more than 50 over last year.

Lewiston Tribune: All of the sheep men except Mr. Thomsen and their wool this year to A. Willey, representative of the Idaho Wool Growers Association. Almost 100,000 pounds were sold, the average price being 84 cents.

WYOMING.

Cheyenne Sun-Leader: As a result of a discussion of a number of subjects between John Morford and John Guyman last night, a lively fight followed, during which Mr. Guyman had a piece of his right ear bitten off. The piece of his right ear was bitten off by John Morford, who was a member of the Cheyenne club, and he died a few minutes afterward in horrible agony.

Golden Bulletin: The Santa Fe railroad survey, which was started from Crawford, N. M., about a month ago, and having as its destination Globe, Ariz., is now being pushed forward by the Santa Fe railroad. The survey is being pushed forward by the Santa Fe railroad, which is now being pushed forward by the Santa Fe railroad.

Nogales Oasis: Wednesday afternoon about 2 o'clock Juan Almaraz was struck and killed by lightning at Casa Piedra, El Paso, which he was driving, was also killed.

Evansville News-Register: Deputy Sheriff Reid arrived from Rawlins on Monday with a 12-year-old boy named Branning, who had been found in a patient for the insane asylum. The boy's mind is badly unbalanced.

San Welch, an old state hunter, was killed by a bear while on a hunting trip in the Gray's river country. He brought back with him six pounds of bear meat, and a head of a bear, which he had killed with a rifle.

Utah Herald: Kennermer, the new building town on the Oregon Short Line railway in this county, is developing rapidly. Several large buildings, including a hotel, are now under construction.

For the second time William Verley of Anaconda is in jail on a charge of grand larceny, preferred by his father.

Young Verley stole a horse from his father's stable a short time ago and was arrested. His father would not prosecute him. Friday the old man and his son secured the horse from the stable and rode off to the mountains. The horse was stolen from the stable of the old man, and the son was arrested.

Maria Hicks, known throughout the west as "the window washer," has been sent back to Fargo by the authorities at Helena. She is a well educated woman of 35, and at irregular intervals has been sent to the state hospital for the insane.

An ex-justice of the peace sold his farm and residence to a local farmer, and moved to the little building with the big sign "Postoffice."

A carpenter announced that he could build a modern house for the following season. And everyone knew what he meant.

A special sort of interest was felt in the case of Joel Stevens. The strong practical citizens smiled at sentiment in politics, but in giving reasons for his vote to elect him to the legislature, they said that they were voting for a man who was a "put to rest."

Each of the two young sisters in the case of the prospective change, as if he were the only one considered.
